Afternoon Activities:

Sightseeing tour through the old part of Toro

Very often women played important roles in the many different parts of life, such as history, economy and art.

On this tour we visit historic places in Toro, where women were important in art, humanities and history.

Painting Workshop

Painting is without any doubt an art, through which the humans express their feelings and emotions. There have been times when women could hardly work as artists. The society didn't really accept them. However, a long the history there have been important female painters. During two afternoons we enter into the world of painting. A local painter teaches different painting techniques (pastel, acrylic, watercolour, etc.) so that you can be creative.

Tapas – Workshop

A lot of women like to prepare delicious food. It is also a way to express sensibility and emotions. In this workshop you learn how to prepare some of the typical Spanish tapas. We discover the huge variations of tapas and their ingredients and the time and places to enjoy them.

Visit to a winery managed by a woman

Who said that "business" is only something for men? We visit a well known winery which is owned and managed by a woman. We get the wine making process explained, followed by a wine tasting and hear from one of the owners what it means to be a women in the business dominated by men.

Last day

Traditional "good-bye dinner" in a typical restaurant in town, this is not included in the course fees.

Program modifications are at any time possible.
